PREFACE.

A Directory for the Town of Nottingham, which on account of its manufactury, trade, and commerce, having been requested by several gentlemen inhabitants; The editor has been encouraged to offer this publication, and being the first attempt, is liable to errors, omissions, misnomers, &c. to which may be added, the alterations that have taken place by death or changes in situation: those that have been discovered are corrected in page 108.

Several inferior trades are omitted—fearful of making the book too voluminous and expenfive.

Any gentlemen, tradefmen, &c. whofe names are omitted, or the place of their refidence changed, are requefted to give fpeedy notice to Mr. Sutton, Printer, Bridlefmith-gate, or to Mr. Willoughby, Caftle-gate, and they will be carefully attended to in the next edition.

TO

OF THE

CORPORATION OF NOTTINGHAM.

RESPECTING THE ELECTION OF

Mayor, Sheriff, and Chamberlain.

"HENRY VI. by charter, incorporated the Town "of Nottingham by the name of Mayor and "Burgeſſes, and ſeparated it for ever from the Body of "the County. He cauſed it to be ſtiled the County of "the Town of Nottingham. Changed their Bailiffs "into Sheriffs, and gave power to the Burgeſſes to "chuſe out of themſelves ſeven Aldermen, one of "whom is annually to be choſen Mayor; that ſuch "Mayor and Aldermen ſhall be Juſtices of the Peace, "and wear ſcarlet Gowns of the ſame Faſhion as the "Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London."

"ON the 14th of Auguſt, annually, the Mayor for "the time being, calls a Hall, and there puts up one "of the Aldermen to be his ſucceſſor, where every "Member has a right to give a vote for the Alderman "he pleaſes, and the Perſon who has the Majority is "nominated Mayor for the enſuing Year."

" On the 29th of September, in the Morning, the " Aldermen and all who are upon the Cloathing, (i. e.) " all who have ſerved the Office of Chamberlain or " Sheriff, aſſemble at the old Mayor's Houſe. About " ten o'Clock they go in their formalities to St. Mary's " Church, where they attend Divine Service, and hear " a Sermon on the occaſion, by one of the Miniſters of " the three Pariſh Churches, who take their turn as " Chaplins to the Corporation. Each of them receiving " annually a free Gift of 20l. by the Hands of the " Chamberlains.——Divine Service being ended, the " whole Body retire into the Veſtry, where the Old " Mayor being ſeated at a table, on which the Mace is " laid covered with Roſemary and Sprigs of Bay, &c. " (which is termed burying the Mace,) takes it up and " delivers it with a ſuitable Compliment into the Hands " of the New Mayor, who propoſes two Perſons for the " Office of Sheriff, and two for that of Chamberlain.— " After which the Senior Coroner adminiſters the Oath " to the New Mayor, and the Town-Clerk, to the " Sheriffs and Chamberlain the Oath of their reſpective " Offices: which Ceremony being ended, they return " in the ſame ſtate to the 'Change-Hall, where an " Entertainment is given at the joint-expence of the " Mayor and Sheriffs, to ſuch Gentlemen and Tradeſ- " men who have had an invitation; and on the enſuing " Market-day they are proclaim'd at the Malt-Croſs, " the whole Corporation attending in their Formalities."

PLUMTRE's HOSPITAL, Bridge-foot.

THIS is the moſt antient of any in Nottingham, being founded by John Plumtre, Merchant, Anno. 1392, and 16th of Richard the Second, for the ſupport of 13 old and poor Widows. But donations not coming in ſo quick as the founder expected, he by deed bearing date, 1415, Regni. Hen. 5, limited the number to 7.—Nicholas Plumtre, by Patent from Charles 1ſt, 1626, obtained the Maſterſhip, and the Poor were allowed then 1d. per day each. His Brother and Succeſſor raiſed their allowance to 2s. 10d. per month each; and in 1650, having improved their rents, he increaſed their allowance to 5s. per month. In 1703, a new Patent was granted to John Plumtre, Eſq. who added a ton of Coals per Ann. to each poor Woman.

The Revenue of the Hoſpital is now ſo greatly improved as (according to the intention of the original Donor,) to ſupport 13 Poor Women, who receive 15s. each every month, one ton of Coals annually each, and a new Gown every year.

N. B. The preſentation is in the Plumtre Family.

WILLOUGHBY's HOSPITAL, Fiſher-gate.

WM. WILLOUGHBY by will, dated Sept. 4, 1524, left ſome Alms Houſes, ſituate on Malin-hill, for the ſupport of five Poor Widows; and William Willoughby, his grand ſon, left an annuity of 10s. for Wood or Coals.—The Alms Houſe being very old, the Inhabitants were removed to a new building erected for the purpoſe, ſituate in Fiſher-gate.

The in-come of this Charity conſiſted originally of no more than 9l. 10s. per Ann. but is now ſo greatly improved, that the preſent building, which was erected in 1780, contains comfortable and convenient rooms for 12 Poor People, ſix on the ground-floor and ſix above.

†‡† Thoſe on the lower-rooms receive from the Church-wardens of St. Mary's, 4l. per Ann. each; and thoſe that occupy the upper-rooms, 2l. per Ann. each.

N. B. The preſentment is in the Church-wardens of St. Mary's, for the time being.

GREGORY's HOSPITAL,

Leen-side, near the Engine-house.

WM. GREGORY, Gentleman, some time town-clerk of Nottingham, by will, dated 1613, gave eleven small tenements with their appurtenances, called White Rents, situate in Hounds-gate, for poor aged people to live in rent free.

These by the corroding hand of time being in a ruinous state, were pulled down, and a new and commodious range of tenements erected as above-mentioned, by the Leen-side, for the reception of eight poor families.

N. B. The presentment is in the gift of the Church-wardens of St. Nicholas' parish.

WOOLLEY's HOSPITAL, Beck-lane.

THOMAS WOOLLEY, of Nottingham, Gent. by will, bearing date, April 1647, gave to the parish of St. Mary, 2 Cottages and appurtenances situate in Beck-lane. At present there are accomodations for six poor people, three of whom possess rooms on the ground floor, and receive six shillings and eight-pence every half year from the Church-wardens of St. Mary's parish, the other three who live in the upper room have no donation.

HANDLEY's HOSPITAL, Stoney-ſtreet.

THIS Hoſpital is a regular and uniform building erected by Henry Handley, Eſq. of Bramcote, who died 1650, and who by will, left 40l. per Annum, out of his lands in Bramcote, for the maintenance of twelve poor people, which donation is rigidly complied with according to the intention of the donor. Every inhabitant of the Hoſpital, receives ſixteen ſhillings and eight-pence per Quarter.

N. B. The preſentments are as follow; four by the Corporation of Nottingham, four by the Right Hon. Lord Viſcount Newark, and four by John Sherwin Eſq.

PATTEN's HOSPITAL, Barker-gate.

JOHN PATTEN, by will, dated 1651, left five thatched houſes, at the upper end of Barker-gate, for the accommodation of five poor families, who have no allowance, except 2s. each, which they receive annually on St. Thomas'-day
